OBITUARY

John Allen Chisholm Sr.

On a clear and crisp, early Texas morning, Nov. 13, 2021, John Allen Chisholm Sr., of Tecumseh, OK, departed this world under a waxing moon just as nautical twilight began. Our beloved husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather left us before the sun broke the horizon, reminding all of us that it is always darkest before the dawn. He was 74.

John Allen Chisholm Sr. was born on April 21, 1947, to Maurice and Elinore “Kitchie” Chisholm in Globe, AZ. John was the youngest of four siblings and the only boy. As a young child, little Johnny had a head full of curls and was due to have his first haircut. Maurice, who was busy working in his gas station, put off Kitchie’s haircut request. There was work to do, after all. Johnny’s mom donned him in his sister’s pinafore and sent him with his auburn-toned curls bouncing over to his father at the station. Suddenly finding the time, Maurice closed-up shop to take John for his first haircut. Shortly thereafter, the family relocated to Superior, AZ, where John spent his childhood.

The family relished in spoiling young Johnny, especially his dear older sister, Barbara. She remembers him as a bit of a pill who loved to tease his older sisters. One afternoon, as an early teenager, Barbara was hanging the family’s laundry on the backyard clothing-line to dry in the warm Arizona sun. Her brother was giving her a relentless hard time and there was no stopping him. Growing upset at his antics, Barbara dropped the clothes in her hand and ran towards little Johnny as he took off sprinting. He hopped a neighboring concrete-blocked fence, knowing full well his unathletic sister would be unable to continue her pursuit. To both of their astonishment, sister Barbara cleared the fence easily in her frustration with him and stood face-to-face with her pest of a brother. They both were shocked and simultaneously looked back at the fence, then back to each other, and immediately burst into laughter together. That is how their relationship was, and they remained the closest of siblings. Barbara remembers him as loving his family and having such a soft spot for his children and those he loved.

John had a charismatic smile and the bluest of eyes. With a rebellious nature and zest for adventure. Oftentimes he hid himself and his motorcycle in a ditch in the early morning hours when he should have been in school. He would watch anxiously as he waited for his father to drive up Sunset Dr. and make the right-hand turn towards the 8 children and were rock solid representations of love. Gladys deeply misses John and will love him forever, even though he was “a pain in her behind”. At John’s passing, he and Gladys were 200 days away from celebrating 50 years of marriage.

John Chisholm again embarked on selfless service by graduating from the Police Academy in 1986. He protected and served the community of Superior, AZ for 10 years. During this time, John exemplified integrity as well as compassion. He assisted countless individuals, saved lives, even helping to deliver a baby in a car while on duty. John’s moral compass pointed true North, and he never broke character. Not once. He was an amazing cop and left the force as Sergeant.

The open road beckoned John to continue his career as a long-haul truck driver. John was an avid reader while on the road by listening to books on tape. He loved to call his wife, kids, and grandkids and was the most amazing storyteller. He made it home as often as he could, and as adults his children loved meeting up with him on the road. John had driven millions of miles throughout the United States and was awarded many times for his driving performance. John retired from his trucking career at the age of 72.

John truly enjoyed spending time with family and was very proud of all his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. He was a hard-working man who took time to savor life, reminding his children to always do their best. John Chisholm’s legacy will continue. His laughter is unforgettable, as is he.

John Allen Chisholm Sr. will be so profoundly missed by his wife of 49 years, Gladys Chisholm of Tecumseh, OK; children, Andrea (Darin) Wilbur, Tabitha Chisholm, Mark (Bobbi) Chisholm, John (Katherine) Chisholm Jr., Byron (Nina) Chisholm, Nancy Chisholm, and Chris (Jessica) Chisholm; grandchildren, Casey Chisholm, Kayleigh Chisholm, Ashley Chreene, Rebecca Stricklin, Michele Stricklin, Alec Trow, Megan Edwards, Morgan Trow, Dillon O’Daniel, Reagan O’Daniel, Nicola Chisholm, Penelope Chisholm, Stella Chisholm, Logan Stancil, Chance Picart, Clover Picart, Luciana Picart, Karisma Picart, and Sofia Chisholm; great-grandchildren, Charlotte Chreene, Remi Chreene, Abigail Mongillo, Hunter Mongillo, Cassandra Cobb and Alexandria Weaver; sister Barbara Sanders; brother-in-law Everett (Linda) Rhodes, and many other extended family members and friends.

John was preceded in death by his son, Eric Chisholm; parents Maurice and Elinore Chisholm; sisters Patricia Lasater and Mary Beth Seller.

A celebration of John’s life will take place on June 1, 2022, in Arizona, surrounded by the majestic mountains he cherished so fondly. This date would have been John and Gladys’ 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Kennecott Copper Company in Ray, AZ where he worked as a heavy-equipment mechanic. Rebel John would then hop on his bike and cruise the open road.

John enlisted in the Navy on March 18, 1965, a month before his 18th birthday. He was stationed aboard the USS Iwo Jima (LPH-2) during the Vietnam War. He served honorably and always represented his service in a noble, dignified manner. John was awarded the Vietnam Service Medal, the National Defense Service Medal, and the Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal with Device.

John Chisholm and Gladys Rhodes had their first date at the drive-in movie theater in Globe on Dec. 18, 1965, while John was on leave from the Navy. What’s meant to be will always find a way and on June 1, 1972, John married the love of his life in Coolidge, AZ. Their relationship embodied a resiliency that withstood the test of time and they loved each other tremendously. Together, they raised

Chamber celebrates new businesses with ribbon cuttings

After months of online luncheons and very few in-person meetings, the Superior Chamber of Commerce resumed their monthly luncheons and ribbon cuttings. This month, following their monthly luncheon, members flocked to three new businesses on Main Street to celebrate these new members with a quick ribbon cutting and photos opportunity.

Superior Pets Az: owned by Jessica Gerola opened earlier this year providing pet grooming services. Her services include a self wash option, full grooming and pet baths. Superior Pets Az is located at 224 Main Street.

Superior Coffee Company: formerly known as Sun Flour Market located at 203 Main Street and is now owned by Sam McCallie. The Superior Coffee Company features fresh coffees, pastries, delicious sandwiches and other goodies. The shop is located inside the building which also features many retail items and art and is also home to Rose's Roses.

Heart Song Galleria: This new art gallery is located inside the Elias Building at 161 Main Street. The shop is a collaborative effort of several local artists all from Superior who are selling their art which is of a wide variety from paintings on canvas and glass, to custom jewelry and wood carvings. They also sell a variety of soaps, fresh fudge and other artisanal items from our around the region.

The Superior Chamber of Commerce meets the third Wednesday of every month at 11:30 a.m. at their building at 165 Main Street. To learn more about the Chamber you can call them at 520-689-0200 or visit their website online www.superiorazchamber.org

LOST plans Luminaria Hike Dec. 4

The Legends of Superior Trails Inc will host a luminaria hike to the old US 60 bridge on the Queen Creek Canyon segment of the LOST on Saturday, Dec. 4, 2021. The event will run from 5-8 p.m.

Participants are encouraged to park downtown and return to the food court for hot chocolate and cookies. A brief ceremony at the US 60 bridge on the trail is also planned.

Miracle on Main Street set for Dec. 10

The Superior Optimist Club will be hosting the annual Miracle on Main Street event in conjunction with Second Friday activities on Friday, Dec. 10, 2021.

Parade line up is at 6 p.m. on Magma Avenue and the parade begins at 7 p.m. Free train rides and food trucks will start at 4 p.m. Following the parade there will be free visits with Santa and he will give out goody bags for the first 300 children who visit Santa.

Sign up for the parade online at: <https://bit.ly/2021LightParadeRegistration> or call Jessica Castillo 520-827-0098 or JoAnn Besich at 520-827-0592.

Mexico Consul General visits Superior

Jorge Mendoza Yescas, the Consul General of Mexico to the Phoenix area, recently visited Superior for a meeting with Mayor Mila Besich along with other elected and business leaders from Superior. In addition to the meeting his trip to Superior included a luncheon at the Boyce Thompson Arboretum and brief tour of Downtown Superior.

The Mexican Consul has developed an entrepreneurial development program for women that are of Mexican nationality or are Mexican American. The program was created in partnership with the Thunderbird School of Global Management and is taught in Spanish. The Consul's office is also responsible for cross border tourism promotion and business trade.

The event and meeting was coordinated by the Superior Enterprise Center which is a program of Rebuild Superior Inc.

"We are honored to have hosted the Consul and his team, and share our community with them. I am looking forward to future collaborations with him and his office," said Mayor Mila Besich.

Shop Local: Heart Song Galleria

In April 2020, COVID-19 brought much of Arizona's economy to a screeching halt. All businesses not deemed "essential" were ordered closed by Arizona's governor Doug Ducey.

The lockdown continued for nearly two months. When Gov. Ducey finally gave the go ahead to reopen, businesses slowly began the road to recovery. Even those listed as "essential" had a challenge with this economic recovery.

Many small businesses and non-profits in Arizona didn't survive the lockdown. The businesses that did survive are hanging on as best they can. Copper Area News wanted to give something back to the local business community as a thank you for supporting us through these troubled times. Our newspapers (Copper Basin News, Superior Sun and San Manuel Miner) have been featuring local businesses and non-profits since the beginning of 2021, encouraging our readers to Shop at Home, stay local and support our local businesses. To date, Copper Area News has featured 123 businesses and groups in the Copper Corridor.

It is hard enough starting a business or expanding one during normal times. But to start one during a pandemic adds an entirely different twist to things.

As the holidays approach, the topic on everyone's mind is "will the gifts I need to buy be available online or in stores?" Comments and advertisements on popular social media sites often encourage people to purchase from local artists, shop at local boutiques or consider gifts of experiences and services. There are really many endless options for shopping local and avoiding the hassle of crowded stores and delayed arrivals.

A new downtown Superior art gallery has opened, Heart Song Galleria. The shop is located at 161 W. Main Street in the building that the Ray Federal Credit Union is in. The building is now being called the Elias Building. The art gallery is curated by five local Superior artists, Deb Olson, Deb Kay, Marilee Lasch, Carolyn Gray, Rita Betti and Gary Bennett. They also are including some retail items and art from artists in Globe and Oracle, making the shop a bit of regional gallery. Each of the artists have a variety of different art pieces and combined they bring a tremendous amount of artistic talents and products to the gallery.

In the gallery you find a variety of art, from hand made jewelry and beaded crosses, to paintings and other mixed media. Some of the unique items, that are local to Superior, are hand painted glassware. Most of the items in the store are unique and one of a kind. There is also a variety of soaps, chocolate fudge, candles and other gift items. The local artists all take turns to staff the store, which is open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. More than likely when you drop in to shop you can meet one of these talented, local Superior artists.

The artists also plan to host a variety of art classes throughout the year. Follow their Facebook page to keep up with their upcoming classes and new items being added to the store.
