Supervisor tours Superior, Copper Basin area

By Gerry Kaufhold
Special to Copper Area News

Theodora “Theo” Schiro is a Democratic Precinct Committee Person for the Kearny area. She invited Pinal County District 1 Supervisor Kevin Cavanaugh for a tour of our area on Friday, Dec. 3. The Supervisor lives in Coolidge, which has many of the same issues as our Copper Corridor.

After a meeting with the board of the Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition (CCEDC), Supervisor Cavanaugh joined Pete Casillas and us on the beautiful patio of the Sunflour Market and Café in Superior. Willa gave us a quick history of the building. Kennedy Ivy, Kevin’s aide, took notes.

Pete gave us the latest update on the Resolution Mine amendment being debated in the Budget Reconciliation Bill in Washington. Mental health and substance abuse issues were discussed.

Cavanaugh explained his approach to making government more efficient. We talked about how small towns with limited resources needed solutions that did not involve reams of paperwork and months of red tape; we just want support so we can get the job done!

Next, we headed south on State Route 177, over “the Divide” – a mountain pass that isolates much of the Copper Basin. Where Superior sits on heavily trafficked US 60, most towns out here you need to know about before you find us.

I explained how the Ray Mine converted from underground operations to an open pit that resembles the landscape of Frank Herbert’s famous novel, “Dune.” And how Kennecott worked with the Galbraith Company out of Cleveland, Ohio to plan and build the new town of Kearny. Ours is the first community in Arizona to enact equal housing opportunity, as any family could purchase a home here.

We arrived at the world famous Old Time Pizza to meet with Judge David Orzell and Doctor Pizza himself, Gary Birkett.

Judge Orzell provided news about developments with the Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center (CVRMC) construction of a new, state-of-the-art medical facility that is in the works, and how CVRMC took over the vital local Ambulance Service to keep it from going away. He also introduced the Buddy Project, which plans to bring a mobile veterinary clinic to the Copper Corridor area, provide spaying and neutering services, and educate local pet owners.

Doctor Pizza regaled us with stories about the Arizona Trail. He got a call one afternoon from a pair of women hikers who were so exhausted they just said “Bring us Pizza and Ice Cream. We’ll pay you ANYTHING!” That started the tradition of Old Time Pizza delivering food and drink directly to the trail head out along the Florence-Kelvin Highway.

A new movie about the Arizona National Scenic Trail features about 10 minutes of interviews with Gary and Lorraine. They have become

ARC/NEPC welcomes new director

ARC of Arizona is the state branch of a non-profit national organization, funded through the Department of Developmental Disabilities, that provides services to individuals with developmental disabilities. In Kearny, ARC/NEPC is dedicated to training these individuals to be ready to work within their community.

ARC/NEPC runs a janitorial service, yard crew and thrift store. Services include outings, training, therapies and counseling, as well as skill development in self-care, communication and independent living training. There are also services for infants who are developmentally delayed.

The day program is located at 316 Alden Rd. in Kearny, but also provides services to Hayden, Winkelman, Mammoth, San Manuel, Oracle and all the way to Superior. The center is open Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Monica Kenyon has been appointed as the new director of the ARC/NEPC after having served nearly five years on the Board of Directors. She has an Associate's Degree in Early Childhood Education and prior experience with Ray Schools, where she worked for 14 years in the CATS room coaching volleyball, softball and driving the bus. She made the change because she was ready for a new adventure, but in the same field of work.

Monica was born in Kearny to Abel and Cheryl Hinojos and was raised there with her brother, Isaac, and sister, Elysa. She still lives there with her husband, Keith Kenyon Jr., and daughter, Amee Kenyon.

"I enjoyed listening to the success stories of either members or staff when I was on the Board and felt this is what I want to be part of," Monica said.

"I have worked with special needs kids for 14 years and have enjoyed watching them learn and grow into the kids they are now," she added. "As adults they are even more amazing in how independent they are and such hard workers. The love and care they show you is unconditional and true."

As its new director, Monica hopes to make ARC/NEPC a stronger influence in the community. Her goal is to help it grow, expanding the services that are offered and to be more involved in the local community, so that those who need its services will know what services are available and how to find them.

internationally known because we have hikers coming through from dozens of countries on several continents. I've personally given rides to hikers from Japan, Germany, Australia, and New Zealand. Olympic Gold Medalist Clara Hughes came through and stayed two days at our local General Kearny Inn. She had the honor of carrying Canada's flag at the opening ceremony of the 2010 Winter Games in Vancouver.

We then toured Winkelman Flats, downtown Hayden, and the San Pedro subdivision. The Hayden homecoming parade makes a jog up the steep hill to march through San Pedro because it is a vital link in our area's history. This is Supervisor Cavanaugh's fourth visit to Hayden.

On our ride back to Superior Supervisor Cavanaugh told us of his epic bicycle ride across the United States. He used a seldom-seen three-wheel recumbent tricycle and pedaled from Indiana through Apache Junction, where he eventually moved when he retired from Law Enforcement in Fort Wayne.

Kennedy Ivy served in the US Navy and is a board member of the San Manuel Revitalization Coalition which is gaining traction with investors who are bringing small businesses into the area. We will be trading ideas with him!

Now that we know our Supervisor a bit better, and he's seen the Copper Corridor, we'll get to work sharing ideas and getting our government to be aware of the issues and opportunities facing "the mountain people" of Eastern Pinal County. Thanks to all who participated.
